

Winter in Maine doesn't mess around—neither do we.

Between deep freezes, Nor'easters, and surprise critter invasions, seasonal homes in the Sebago Lakes Region face real risks. We are on the ground, checking every detail, because a missed problem in February can cost you $30K in April.

Pine Tree
Home Watch

Accredited Member of the National Home Watch Association

Pine Tree Home Watch was founded with one clear mission: to help homeowners in Maine feel confident that their property is protected—even when they're not around.

Owner Mark Caron brings a rare mix of military precision, technical know-how, and neighborly care to the homes he looks after. His background shows up in his approach: methodical, reliable, and focused on doing the job right the first time.

Whether you're a seasonal homeowner, a snowbird heading to Florida for the winter, or someone who manages a property, Pine Tree Home Watch is your local, certified partner—making sure nothing goes wrong when no one's looking.
